

GROCERIES, GROCERIES, BOTH STAPLE AND FANCY.

THE grocery you'll prefer must be conducted on modern lines—where goods are passed on to you at the slightest margins. Prices and quality of goods here mean a quick turning of the stock—means a peculiar satisfaction in your buying.

The following are a few of the articles you will find in my stock:

Pickles, Sweet and Sour; Lee & Perry's Sauce; Table and Pie Peaches; Salmon, in 10, 15 and 20-cent cans; Oysters and Sardines; Chopped, Roast and Canned Beef; Tomatoes, Okra and Tomatoes; Peas; Paxton's Canned Corn; Condensed Milk; Macaroni and Cheese; Oatmeal; Tapioca; Knox's and Cox's Jellatine; Baker's Cocoa and Baker's Chocolate; Ballard's, Swansdown, Grano, Oven Lifter, Monarch, Blue Bird and Red Rose Flour; California, Rex Brand, Diamond "C," Tennessee and Home-made Ham; Dried Apples and Peaches; Apples, Oranges, Lemons and Bananas arriving every few days.

Give me a call.

Respectfully,

C. G. JAYNES.

Local and Personal.

—Pay your town taxes. Books now open at C. W. Bunkley's store.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goodman, of Seneca, were in Wallalla Tuesday.

—For a spring tonic to build up the system, take Lummy's Sarsaparilla.

—Mr. W. H. Sheldon, of Tugalo, was among friends in Wallalla Tuesday.

—For biliousness, headache, pain in back and side Lummy's 8 hour liver pills are sure.

—Mrs. H. C. Busch and children are visiting relatives and friends in Columbia this week.

—In spite of the late start the farmers had, this promises to be one of the greatest crop years.

—Mr. Tom Wakfield returned to Wallalla Monday evening. He was a member of the 2d South Carolina Regiment, recently mustered out in Augusta.

—Mrs. Wm. Harper, who has been visiting the family of Mr. W. P. Dickson for several days, returned to her home in Pikes county Tuesday morning.

—This year Judge J. H. Hudson, the first honor man of the class of 1892, is to deliver the annual address on commencement day at the South Carolina College.

—Health for ten cents. Casserols make the bowels and kidneys act naturally, destroy microbes, cure headache, biliousness and constipation. All druggists.

—Mr. Chalmers Hughes and Mr. T. E. Eskew returned home last Saturday, after spending several days very pleasantly in Wallalla among relatives and friends.

—There is a splendid opportunity for some responsible man to open a first-class market in Wallalla. Who shall be the first to enter in and supply a long-felt want?

—Mr. G. W. Pratt left Wednesday morning for a trip over part of his territory. He will attend the meeting of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias before his return.

—Mr. and Mrs. Wallace W. Kilburn, of Pikes county, spent Sunday in Wallalla visiting his mother, Mrs. M. E. Kilburn. They were accompanied by their two children.

—Rev. Arthur Crane, after holding services in the Wallalla Baptist church Sunday morning and evening, left Monday for Pocatons, Va., where he will conduct a series of meetings.

—If you want cheap goods go to J. & J. S. Carter, Westminister. Don't forget that they will pay highest market price for your chickens and other produce. A nice lot of pants just received.

—Rev. R. R. Dagnall will preach a missionary sermon next Sunday afternoon, 14th instant, at 4 o'clock, at the Rock Springs Methodist church, for the benefit of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.

—Miss Nannie Ansel is visiting relatives in Charleston. She left Wallalla Monday and will make an extended visit to her brother, Mr. John A. Ansel, and family. Her many friends wish her a pleasant visit.

A commission for a charter has been issued to the Hones Path Oil Mill Company, of Hones Path. The incorporators of the company are: W. A. Strother, H. M. Richardson, J. F. Monroe, J. C. Milford and J. N. Kay.

—Mr. and Mrs. David Norton, Miss K. S. Wright and Mr. R. J. Phillips, of Highlands, N. C., were registered at the Wallalla Hotel Monday night. They left Tuesday morning for Charleston to visit the reunion.

—Go to J. & J. S. Carter's to get your new suit. The have them now and more coming. Your wants shall be supplied, for you want a large stock to select from and you want prices right. So go now and get first choice.

—Mr. J. Freeman left last Friday for Oklahoma Territory. He is a resident of the upper part of Oconee, but is well known to many in and around Wallalla. We wish for him every success in his adopted home in the far West.

—Mr. L. J. Kilburn, of the Macon, Ga., Evening News, was among his many Wallalla friends this week. Whenever "Lee" drops over to visit his mother there are always numerous friends besides to welcome him to the old town.

—Mr. H. C. Busch shipped 84 dozen eggs to Charleston Monday morning. He is one of the most extensive dealers in poultry and eggs in the up-country and every week ships large quantities of chickens and eggs to the Charleston market.

—Mrs. Kate P. Lewis left for Charleston Monday morning. She will be the guest of Mrs. H. F. Bremer while there, and will visit among her friends. In Charleston, as wherever she is known, Mrs. Lewis numbers her friends by the score.

—It is probable that Congress will be convened in extra session about the first of October, owing to the vast amount of legislation growing out of the war with Spain relative to the government of the acquired territory under the fostering care of the United States.

The Wallalla Comedy Company is preparing to present another play the latter part of May. Remember this, and when they announce the time for their appearance be prepared to occupy a seat in the hall. The play is a good one, and they should have a full house.

—The King's Daughters of the Wallalla Baptist church will give an ice cream and strawberry festival in Catharine Park on next Tuesday evening, May 16th, at 8:30 o'clock. The entertainment will be made enjoyable and interesting in every respect and everybody is invited to be present and help along a good cause.

—Prof. James M. Moss left Wednesday morning for Charleston, where he will visit his sister, Mrs. Dr. Joel W. Bowen, and friends. Mr. Moss is a representative to the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias, No. 67, and will attend the annual session of that body in Florence next week. We wish him a pleasant trip.

—Mr. H. I. Weaver, of Roswell, Ga., is in Wallalla this week.

—Mr. J. W. Tolbert, of McCormick, S. C., is visiting relatives and friends in Wallalla.

—Mr. George Seaborn, of Atlanta, spent Tuesday night in Wallalla visiting relatives.

—Rev. Chas. Curry and Mrs. Wm. Wall, of Clayton, Ga., are visiting the family of Mrs. E. A. Bell.

—Mrs. F. Maxwell, of Anderson, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. E. A. Bell. Mrs. Maxwell was formerly Miss Zoe Blockley, and has many friends in Wallalla, who are delighted to meet her again.

—Spring is here and our spring goods are here. Do not fail to see our new lines, for we can suit you; besides, that thing you are so anxious about (prices), will suit you. Come now.

—J. & J. S. Carter, Westminister, S. C.

—Mr. and Mrs. G. Engleby and four children, Miss Inglesby, Mrs. Hopkins and three children, Miss Deborah Kaps of Savannah, Ga., and Mrs. Lamb, of Augusta, Ga., stopped over at the Wallalla Hotel Wednesday night. They left this morning for Highlands, N. C., where they will spend the summer.

—The following party from Wallalla attended the marriage of Mr. J. W. Reeder and Miss Olive Duncan at Bethel Wednesday evening: Mrs. Rosa Schroeder, Dr. C. C. Prebst, Mr. T. E. Alexander, Miss Susie Sherry, Mrs. G. W. Curry, Mr. M. C. Seaborn, Miss Lillian Vernon, Misses Bertha Schroeder, Katie Bell, Fannie Maxwell, Fannie Crisp, Annie Maxwell, Julia Maxwell, Emma Merrick, Maude Kay, Messrs. C. W. Bunkley, Jesse C. Neville, W. A. Strother, Jr., Mack Neville, Thos. Maxwell, W. J. Schroeder, J. B. Reid, Harry Melburg, Turner Key and Joe Hopkins.

—Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. Clifford S. Merrick to Elizabeth Vredenburg, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Vredenburg, 604 South Sixth Street, Springfield, Ill., on Wednesday evening, May 24th, 1892. Mr. and Mrs. Merrick will be at Asheville, N. C.

—Mr. Gus Taylor and family, of Port Tampa City, Fla., arrived in Wallalla last week and will make their home in this vicinity in the future. Mr. Taylor's health has become impaired by the Florida climate, and he seeks the splendid climate of Wallalla to recuperate. We welcome him and his back to our country.

—Mr. Jas. Thompson left Monday for Charleston. He will be there during the reunion, and on his return will stop over at Orangeburg and other points, attending the annual meeting of the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias in Florence. Mr. Thompson is one of the representatives from Wallalla Lodge, No. 67, K. of P., and stands high in Pythian circles.

—Mr. Harry Melburg returned to Wallalla last Thursday evening, after an absence of almost two years. He joined Ray's Regiment of Immunes at Macon, Ga., and was with them until the muster-out a short while since. He makes a handsome "Ex Ray," and returns to his old home the very picture of health. We are glad to have him among us again.

—Mr. W. L. Moorhead, of Columbia, spent a day in Wallalla last week visiting the family of Mr. J. S. Floyd. He left Friday morning for New Orleans, where he will attend a meeting of railway employees. Mrs. Moorhead, who has been visiting her parents, left Wednesday for Newberry, where she will spend a short while visiting before returning to her home in Columbia.

A Fairfield lathe, bailing press and carding machine are recent additions to the machinery of the Wallalla Cotton Mills. An expert is putting an attachment on the pickers to clean cotton. He claims it will remove 50 per cent more trash from cotton than could be done without its use. It is putting it in at his own expense. If not found satisfactory it will be removed by him without charge.

—The pupils and teachers of the Wallalla High School enjoyed immensely a picnic on Tuesday at Mr. F. W. Pieper's. The little flocks were even pleased to be loose again and allowed to run either and thither over the hills and across the streams. In the afternoon a red hot game of baseball was played between two nine. All feel greatly indebted to Mr. Pieper for the use of his grounds and for his generous hospitality. If you want to have a good time at a picnic go to Mr. Pieper's.

—Married, on Monday afternoon, 8th instant, at the Methodist parsonage, in Wallalla, S. C., Rev. J. A. Collins to Miss Carrie Ockers, Rev. J. L. Daniel officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Collins have taken rooms at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. C. Wendelken, grandparents of the bride, where they will be pleased to have their friends call and see them. Many friends extend congratulations and wish them a long and happy life. The bride is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. Ockers and the groom is a newcomer from Irvin, Tenn.

—Capt. Louis K. Perry, of Asheville, N. C., was in Wallalla last Friday on a visit to Mr. Wm. Perry and family. He left Saturday for Detroit, Michigan, where he will attend the annual meeting of the Order of Railway Conductors. He will accompany the body on an extended excursion to the Thousand Islands, Toronto, Canada, and other points after the adjournment of the session. Mr. Perry is one of the most popular conductors in the railway service, and has hosts of friends here and elsewhere who will join in wishing him a pleasant trip.

—Sheriff E. S. Clodfelter, of Franklin county, Ga., was in Wallalla on official business this week. He was armed with a requisition for "Chas. Bright" who is wanted in his county on the charge of larceny. Sheriff Moss brought Bright from Hartwell county a month ago on a warrant for larceny of live stock. Bright pleaded guilty before Magistrate W. O. White and served a sentence of twenty days on the chain gang. He was carried back to Georgia Wednesday afternoon under the tender care of Sheriff Clodfelter. Mr. Clodfelter was once a resident of Oconee county, but went to Georgia in 1875. He has been Sheriff of Franklin county for the last six years, and enjoys the unique distinction of being the only Democrat in the county that the Populists could not beat.

—Messrs. C. M. Compton and J. E. Cochran, of Laurens county, have just completed a comprehensive write up of the history and general business interests of Oconee county. They are gentlemen of pleasing address and noble gentleness wherever they go. Their issue for Oconee county amounted to 2,500 copies. The "Oconee County Mercantile Advertiser" is a well edited paper, and they are to be congratulated on their success in the county. They know their business and they require good work on their paper. Under these circumstances it was but natural for them to call at The Courier office and have their printing done in first-class style. Messrs. Compton and Cochran make a specialty of writing up the business men of the country by counties. We wish them every success in their efforts.

—Mr. R. P. Smith, of Chilesburg, Va., writes I don't know how I could do without them. I have had Liver disease for over twenty years. Am now entirely cured.

Tutt's Liver Pills

—Tugalo, S. C., May 9.—We are having fine farming weather just now. Cotton seed planted before the last rain is coming up beautifully. Some of us are working over crops.

Garden truck is looking much better since the rain.

Ponies and fried chicken will soon be ripe.

The school at South Union closes next Friday. Understand there will be some exercises in the afternoon.

Mr. L. G. Gaston and sister, Miss Harlow, recently visited their friends on Long's Hill.

Col. David T. McClanahan was down in this section on business yesterday. Miss Knox and Jake Croner went fishing the other night. They always scratch instead of jerk when they get a bite.

Mr. J. J. Johnson will soon have Mr. J. G. Brezale's new house completed. Some of our young men do look so sweet in new calico pants.

Andrew Carnegie has sold out his interest in the Carnegie steel works to him is said to be $150,000,000.

On Wednesday morning, 10th instant, Deputy Sheriff B. R. Moss and Mr. L. L. Jarrard captured John Sullivan and four boys, two negroes, who are wanted at Cartersville, Ga., for burglary and larceny. On the 6th Mr. Jarrard received a letter from Mr. L. Burroughs, deputy sheriff, telling of the burglary and larceny committed by them in Bartow county over two years ago. They had been arrested and lodged in jail at Cartersville, where they broke jail on May 10th, 1891, and made good their escape. They came to this county, and have been "loping" in these parts for several months.

They had kept their secret pretty well, and no white man suspected them of being escaped jail birds. But a certain negro man knew their history, and when Sullivan had succeeded in stealing his wife, the outraged and irate husband went to Mr. Jarrard, at Fair Play, and gave them both away. Mr. Jarrard opened correspondence with the sheriff at Cartersville and learned that the statements made to him by the wronged husband were true. He then called on Deputy Sheriff B. R. Moss for assistance in making the arrest. Accordingly early Wednesday morning Messrs. Moss and Jarrard went to the place of Mr. W. A. Lowery, on Seneca river, where the negroes were hiding, and just two years to a day from the time they broke jail in Cartersville, Sullivan and Hale found themselves in the strong grasp of the law. After considerable resistance and attempts to flee they were arrested and brought to Wallalla and lodged in jail. The sheriff at Cartersville was wired, and answered that he will be here to-day (Thursday) to convey the prisoners back to the scene of their crime, where they will be given a term in the penitentiary.

Death of a Revered Baptist.

Dr. Robert Ryland died on April 30th, 1890, in Lexington, Ky. He was born in March, 1805, and lived to see twenty-eight Presidential administrations. He was a remarkable man and probably the most revered Baptist in the United States. He was a relative of the junior editor of The Courier. In closing a lengthy notice of his life and death the religious Herald says: "Dr. Ryland was a pious man. He walked with God. He searched his own heart. He spent much of his life in prayer. He loved God's Word and God's house. The blessed hope of the Gospel shone more and more brightly in his heart. His faith strengthened with the light of years. He was ripe for heaven. What a priceless legacy he leaves to his kindred and friends."

Death of Mrs. Bischoff.

Mrs. Maria Bischoff died at her home, in Midway, Monday, May 8th, 1890, after a lingering illness. She was born at Baden, Germany, November 29th, 1826, her maiden name being Dausch. On July 5th, 1859, she was married to Mr. Frederick Bischoff, at Wallalla, S. C., by Rev. C. F. Bansemer. She was an estimable lady and a consistent member of the Catholic church. The relatives of the deceased have the sympathies of many friends in their loss and bereavement. Four children (three sons and one daughter) were born unto Mr. and Mrs. Bischoff, all of whom are still living. Her funeral services were conducted in the Wallalla Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. G. Schaid, after which her body was laid to rest in the Lutheran cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

Death of an Octogenarian.

Mr. Ephraim Cobb died at his home in Wallalla on Wednesday evening, 10th instant, at 8:20 o'clock, at an advanced age. He was born on May 25th, 1810, and wanted only fifteen days of reaching four-score years. He was a native of this county and here he spent his long and useful life. For the last eighteen years he has lived in Wallalla. He has been a constant sufferer from palsy for sixteen years. In 1811 he was married to Miss Louisa Turner, with eight children, three sons and five daughters, survive. Mr. Cobb was a well known and highly respected citizen. In the days of his mature manhood he was an industrious and successful farmer. He was a member of the Baptist church for many years, and in his last days was sustained by the consolations of the Christian religion. He welcomed the end of his weary pilgrimage, and assured those near and dear that he was going home to rest. A good man has entered upon the reward of a life well spent. His body will be interred at Holly Springs Baptist church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at two o'clock. To his aged widow and the children is extended the sincere sympathy of many friends.

—Mr. R. P. Smith, of Chilesburg, Va., writes I don't know how I could do without them. I have had Liver disease for over twenty years. Am now entirely cured.

Tutt's Liver Pills

—Tugalo, S. C., May 9.—We are having fine farming weather just now. Cotton seed planted before the last rain is coming up beautifully. Some of us are working over crops.

Garden truck is looking much better since the rain.

Ponies and fried chicken will soon be ripe.

The school at South Union closes next Friday. Understand there will be some exercises in the afternoon.

Mr. L. G. Gaston and sister, Miss Harlow, recently visited their friends on Long's Hill.

Col. David T. McClanahan was down in this section on business yesterday. Miss Knox and Jake Croner went fishing the other night. They always scratch instead of jerk when they get a bite.

Mr. J. J. Johnson will soon have Mr. J. G. Brezale's new house completed. Some of our young men do look so sweet in new calico pants.

Andrew Carnegie has sold out his interest in the Carnegie steel works to him is said to be $150,000,000.

On Wednesday morning, 10th instant, Deputy Sheriff B. R. Moss and Mr. L. L. Jarrard captured John Sullivan and four boys, two negroes, who are wanted at Cartersville, Ga., for burglary and larceny. On the 6th Mr. Jarrard received a letter from Mr. L. Burroughs, deputy sheriff, telling of the burglary and larceny committed by them in Bartow county over two years ago. They had been arrested and lodged in jail at Cartersville, where they broke jail on May 10th, 1891, and made good their escape. They came to this county, and have been "loping" in these parts for several months.

They had kept their secret pretty well, and no white man suspected them of being escaped jail birds. But a certain negro man knew their history, and when Sullivan had succeeded in stealing his wife, the outraged and irate husband went to Mr. Jarrard, at Fair Play, and gave them both away. Mr. Jarrard opened correspondence with the sheriff at Cartersville and learned that the statements made to him by the wronged husband were true. He then called on Deputy Sheriff B. R. Moss for assistance in making the arrest. Accordingly early Wednesday morning Messrs. Moss and Jarrard went to the place of Mr. W. A. Lowery, on Seneca river, where the negroes were hiding, and just two years to a day from the time they broke jail in Cartersville, Sullivan and Hale found themselves in the strong grasp of the law. After considerable resistance and attempts to flee they were arrested and brought to Wallalla and lodged in jail. The sheriff at Cartersville was wired, and answered that he will be here to-day (Thursday) to convey the prisoners back to the scene of their crime, where they will be given a term in the penitentiary.

Death of a Revered Baptist.

Dr. Robert Ryland died on April 30th, 1890, in Lexington, Ky. He was born in March, 1805, and lived to see twenty-eight Presidential administrations. He was a remarkable man and probably the most revered Baptist in the United States. He was a relative of the junior editor of The Courier. In closing a lengthy notice of his life and death the religious Herald says: "Dr. Ryland was a pious man. He walked with God. He searched his own heart. He spent much of his life in prayer. He loved God's Word and God's house. The blessed hope of the Gospel shone more and more brightly in his heart. His faith strengthened with the light of years. He was ripe for heaven. What a priceless legacy he leaves to his kindred and friends."

Death of Mrs. Bischoff.

Mrs. Maria Bischoff died at her home, in Midway, Monday, May 8th, 1890, after a lingering illness. She was born at Baden, Germany, November 29th, 1826, her maiden name being Dausch. On July 5th, 1859, she was married to Mr. Frederick Bischoff, at Wallalla, S. C., by Rev. C. F. Bansemer. She was an estimable lady and a consistent member of the Catholic church. The relatives of the deceased have the sympathies of many friends in their loss and bereavement. Four children (three sons and one daughter) were born unto Mr. and Mrs. Bischoff, all of whom are still living. Her funeral services were conducted in the Wallalla Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. G. Schaid, after which her body was laid to rest in the Lutheran cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

Death of an Octogenarian.

Mr. Ephraim Cobb died at his home in Wallalla on Wednesday evening, 10th instant, at 8:20 o'clock, at an advanced age. He was born on May 25th, 1810, and wanted only fifteen days of reaching four-score years. He was a native of this county and here he spent his long and useful life. For the last eighteen years he has lived in Wallalla. He has been a constant sufferer from palsy for sixteen years. In 1811 he was married to Miss Louisa Turner, with eight children, three sons and five daughters, survive. Mr. Cobb was a well known and highly respected citizen. In the days of his mature manhood he was an industrious and successful farmer. He was a member of the Baptist church for many years, and in his last days was sustained by the consolations of the Christian religion. He welcomed the end of his weary pilgrimage, and assured those near and dear that he was going home to rest. A good man has entered upon the reward of a life well spent. His body will be interred at Holly Springs Baptist church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at two o'clock. To his aged widow and the children is extended the sincere sympathy of many friends.

—Mr. R. P. Smith, of Chilesburg, Va., writes I don't know how I could do without them. I have had Liver disease for over twenty years. Am now entirely cured.

Tutt's Liver Pills

—Tugalo, S. C., May 9.—We are having fine farming weather just now. Cotton seed planted before the last rain is coming up beautifully. Some of us are working over crops.

Garden truck is looking much better since the rain.

Ponies and fried chicken will soon be ripe.

The school at South Union closes next Friday. Understand there will be some exercises in the afternoon.

Mr. L. G. Gaston and sister, Miss Harlow, recently visited their friends on Long's Hill.

Col. David T. McClanahan was down in this section on business yesterday. Miss Knox and Jake Croner went fishing the other night. They always scratch instead of jerk when they get a bite.

Mr. J. J. Johnson will soon have Mr. J. G. Brezale's new house completed. Some of our young men do look so sweet in new calico pants.

Andrew Carnegie has sold out his interest in the Carnegie steel works to him is said to be $150,000,000.

On Wednesday morning, 10th instant, Deputy Sheriff B. R. Moss and Mr. L. L. Jarrard captured John Sullivan and four boys, two negroes, who are wanted at Cartersville, Ga., for burglary and larceny. On the 6th Mr. Jarrard received a letter from Mr. L. Burroughs, deputy sheriff, telling of the burglary and larceny committed by them in Bartow county over two years ago. They had been arrested and lodged in jail at Cartersville, where they broke jail on May 10th, 1891, and made good their escape. They came to this county, and have been "loping" in these parts for several months.

They had kept their secret pretty well, and no white man suspected them of being escaped jail birds. But a certain negro man knew their history, and when Sullivan had succeeded in stealing his wife, the outraged and irate husband went to Mr. Jarrard, at Fair Play, and gave them both away. Mr. Jarrard opened correspondence with the sheriff at Cartersville and learned that the statements made to him by the wronged husband were true. He then called on Deputy Sheriff B. R. Moss for assistance in making the arrest. Accordingly early Wednesday morning Messrs. Moss and Jarrard went to the place of Mr. W. A. Lowery, on Seneca river, where the negroes were hiding, and just two years to a day from the time they broke jail in Cartersville, Sullivan and Hale found themselves in the strong grasp of the law. After considerable resistance and attempts to flee they were arrested and brought to Wallalla and lodged in jail. The sheriff at Cartersville was wired, and answered that he will be here to-day (Thursday) to convey the prisoners back to the scene of their crime, where they will be given a term in the penitentiary.

Death of a Revered Baptist.

Dr. Robert Ryland died on April 30th, 1890, in Lexington, Ky. He was born in March, 1805, and lived to see twenty-eight Presidential administrations. He was a remarkable man and probably the most revered Baptist in the United States. He was a relative of the junior editor of The Courier. In closing a lengthy notice of his life and death the religious Herald says: "Dr. Ryland was a pious man. He walked with God. He searched his own heart. He spent much of his life in prayer. He loved God's Word and God's house. The blessed hope of the Gospel shone more and more brightly in his heart. His faith strengthened with the light of years. He was ripe for heaven. What a priceless legacy he leaves to his kindred and friends."

Death of Mrs. Bischoff.

Mrs. Maria Bischoff died at her home, in Midway, Monday, May 8th, 1890, after a lingering illness. She was born at Baden, Germany, November 29th, 1826, her maiden name being Dausch. On July 5th, 1859, she was married to Mr. Frederick Bischoff, at Wallalla, S. C., by Rev. C. F. Bansemer. She was an estimable lady and a consistent member of the Catholic church. The relatives of the deceased have the sympathies of many friends in their loss and bereavement. Four children (three sons and one daughter) were born unto Mr. and Mrs. Bischoff, all of whom are still living. Her funeral services were conducted in the Wallalla Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. G. Schaid, after which her body was laid to rest in the Lutheran cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

Death of an Octogenarian.

Mr. Ephraim Cobb died at his home in Wallalla on Wednesday evening, 10th instant, at 8:20 o'clock, at an advanced age. He was born on May 25th, 1810, and wanted only fifteen days of reaching four-score years. He was a native of this county and here he spent his long and useful life. For the last eighteen years he has lived in Wallalla. He has been a constant sufferer from palsy for sixteen years. In 1811 he was married to Miss Louisa Turner, with eight children, three sons and five daughters, survive. Mr. Cobb was a well known and highly respected citizen. In the days of his mature manhood he was an industrious and successful farmer. He was a member of the Baptist church for many years, and in his last days was sustained by the consolations of the Christian religion. He welcomed the end of his weary pilgrimage, and assured those near and dear that he was going home to rest. A good man has entered upon the reward of a life well spent. His body will be interred at Holly Springs Baptist church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at two o'clock. To his aged widow and the children is extended the sincere sympathy of many friends.

—Mr. R. P. Smith, of Chilesburg, Va., writes I don't know how I could do without them. I have had Liver disease for over twenty years. Am now entirely cured.

Tutt's Liver Pills

—Tugalo, S. C., May 9.—We are having fine farming weather just now. Cotton seed planted before the last rain is coming up beautifully. Some of us are working over crops.

Garden truck is looking much better since the rain.

Ponies and fried chicken will soon be ripe.

The undersigned merchants of West Union, S. C., hereby agree to close our places of business at seven o'clock in the afternoon, Saturdays excepted, from May 16th to September 1st, 1890.

R. C. STROTHER, per Reid,
F. H. CANTREY,
JAMES PHINNEY,
C. W. WICKLIFE.

Our Representatives at the Reunion.

The delegation from Wallalla to the reunion in Charleston was quite large. During the week the following have left to enjoy a short visit to the "City by the Sea": Mrs. F. W. Pieper, D. Ockers, Miss Ida Ockers, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Wilson and little granddaughter, Mary Ellen Wilson, J. Keith, L. H. Brandt, Sam Wilson, Jas. Bryce, of Newberry, Grundy Hill, Jas. Thompson, Mrs. K. P. Lewis, Miss Nannie Ansel, Mrs. H. B. Schroder, Miss Annie Schroder, Mrs. F. H. Brandt, O. H. Schumacher, Col. R. A. Thompson, Miss Eleanor Keys, Robt. S. Rutledge, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Barnett, son, John E. Banknight, Miss Annie Rose, H. C. Busch, Mr. D. Rabens and two children, G. A. Norman, Dr. W. T. Stoddard, Charlie Pratt, Jas. M. and W. D. Moss, Mr. and Mrs. G. K. Maxwell, Mr. H. Loy, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Verner, W. H. Hester, Dr. and Mrs. D. B. Darby, Mrs. I. H. Harrison, John F. Craig.

Marriage of a Popular Couple.

Married, at Bethel Presbyterian church on Wednesday evening, 10th instant, at 9 o'clock, Mr. John W. Reeder to Miss Olive Duncan, Rev. R. L. Rogers officiating. As the bride and groom, Miss Olive Duncan, the bride, Mr. J. R. Kay, the best man, and Mr. John W. Reeder, the groom. At the altar the bride and groom joined each other under a floral arch, and the strains of a wedding march ceased, the wedding was in the holy bonds of wedlock, according to the Presbyterian service. The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens. The nuptials were witnessed by a large concourse of friends and admirers of the popular young couple. A marriage reception was tendered at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Duncan, at seven o'clock. Quite a number of invited guests were present. The bride is one of Oconee's most beautiful and accomplished young ladies, possessing many graces, both of person and of mind. The groom is a prosperous farmer and school teacher, and numbers his friends by the score. We unite with hosts of friends in extending congratulations and wishing the happy couple a long life of joy and prosperity.

Fugitives from Justice Captured.

On Wednesday morning, 10th instant, Deputy Sheriff B. R. Moss and Mr. L. L. Jarrard captured John Sullivan and four boys, two negroes, who are wanted at Cartersville, Ga., for burglary and larceny. On the 6th Mr. Jarrard received a letter from Mr. L. Burroughs, deputy sheriff, telling of the burglary and larceny committed by them in Bartow county over two years ago. They had been arrested and lodged in jail at Cartersville, where they broke jail on May 10th, 1891, and made good their escape. They came to this county, and have been "loping" in these parts for several months.

They had kept their secret pretty well, and no white man suspected them of being escaped jail birds. But a certain negro man knew their history, and when Sullivan had succeeded in stealing his wife, the outraged and irate husband went to Mr. Jarrard, at Fair Play, and gave them both away. Mr. Jarrard opened correspondence with the sheriff at Cartersville and learned that the statements made to him by the wronged husband were true. He then called on Deputy Sheriff B. R. Moss for assistance in making the arrest. Accordingly early Wednesday morning Messrs. Moss and Jarrard went to the place of Mr. W. A. Lowery, on Seneca river, where the negroes were hiding, and just two years to a day from the time they broke jail in Cartersville, Sullivan and Hale found themselves in the strong grasp of the law. After considerable resistance and attempts to flee they were arrested and brought to Wallalla and lodged in jail. The sheriff at Cartersville was wired, and answered that he will be here to-day (Thursday) to convey the prisoners back to the scene of their crime, where they will be given a term in the penitentiary.

Death of a Revered Baptist.

Dr. Robert Ryland died on April 30th, 1890, in Lexington, Ky. He was born in March, 1805, and lived to see twenty-eight Presidential administrations. He was a remarkable man and probably the most revered Baptist in the United States. He was a relative of the junior editor of The Courier. In closing a lengthy notice of his life and death the religious Herald says: "Dr. Ryland was a pious man. He walked with God. He searched his own heart. He spent much of his life in prayer. He loved God's Word and God's house. The blessed hope of the Gospel shone more and more brightly in his heart. His faith strengthened with the light of years. He was ripe for heaven. What a priceless legacy he leaves to his kindred and friends."

Death of Mrs. Bischoff.

Mrs. Maria Bischoff died at her home, in Midway, Monday, May 8th, 1890, after a lingering illness. She was born at Baden, Germany, November 29th, 1826, her maiden name being Dausch. On July 5th, 1859, she was married to Mr. Frederick Bischoff, at Wallalla, S. C., by Rev. C. F. Bansemer. She was an estimable lady and a consistent member of the Catholic church. The relatives of the deceased have the sympathies of many friends in their loss and bereavement. Four children (three sons and one daughter) were born unto Mr. and Mrs. Bischoff, all of whom are still living. Her funeral services were conducted in the Wallalla Lutheran church Tuesday afternoon by Rev. J. G. Schaid, after which her body was laid to rest in the Lutheran cemetery to await the resurrection morn.

Death of an Octogenarian.

Mr. Ephraim Cobb died at his home in Wallalla on Wednesday evening, 10th instant, at 8:20 o'clock, at an advanced age. He was born on May 25th, 1810, and wanted only fifteen days of reaching four-score years. He was a native of this county and here he spent his long and useful life. For the last eighteen years he has lived in Wallalla. He has been a constant sufferer from palsy for sixteen years. In 1811 he was married to Miss Louisa Turner, with eight children, three sons and five daughters, survive. Mr. Cobb was a well known and highly respected citizen. In the days of his mature manhood he was an industrious and successful farmer. He was a member of the Baptist church for many years, and in his last days was sustained by the consolations of the Christian religion. He welcomed the end of his weary pilgrimage, and assured those near and dear that he was going home to rest. A good man has entered upon the reward of a life well spent. His body will be interred at Holly Springs Baptist church to-morrow (Friday) afternoon at two o'clock. To his aged widow and the children is extended the sincere sympathy of many friends.

—Mr. R. P. Smith, of Chilesburg, Va., writes I don't know how I could do without them. I have had Liver disease for over twenty years. Am now entirely cured.

Tutt's Liver Pills

—Tugalo, S. C., May 9.—We are having fine farming weather just now. Cotton seed planted before the last rain is coming up beautifully. Some of us are working over crops.

Garden truck is looking much better since the rain.

Ponies and fried chicken will soon be ripe.

The school at South Union closes next Friday. Understand there will be some exercises in the afternoon.

Mr. L. G. Gaston and sister, Miss Harlow, recently visited their friends on Long's Hill.

Col. David T. McClanahan was down in this section on business yesterday. Miss Knox and Jake Croner went fishing the other night. They always scratch instead of jerk when they get a bite.

Mr. J. J. Johnson will soon have Mr. J. G. Brezale's new house completed. Some of our young men do look so sweet in new calico pants.

Andrew Carnegie has sold out his interest in the Carnegie steel works to him is said to be $150,000,000.

On Wednesday morning, 10th instant, Deputy Sheriff B. R. Moss and Mr. L. L. Jarrard captured John Sullivan and four boys, two negroes, who are wanted at Cartersville, Ga., for burglary and larceny. On the 6th Mr. Jarrard received a letter from Mr. L. Burroughs, deputy sheriff, telling of the burglary and larceny committed by them in Bartow county over two years ago. They had been arrested and lodged in jail at Cartersville, where they broke jail on May 10th, 1891, and made good their escape. They came to this county, and have been "loping" in these parts for several months.

They had kept their secret pretty well, and no white man suspected them of being escaped jail birds. But a certain negro man knew their history, and when Sullivan had succeeded in stealing his wife, the outraged and irate husband went to Mr. Jarrard, at Fair Play, and gave them both away. Mr. Jarrard opened correspondence with the sheriff at Cartersville and learned that the statements made to him by the wronged husband were true. He then called on Deputy Sheriff B. R. Moss for assistance in making the arrest. Accordingly early Wednesday morning Messrs. Moss and Jarrard went to the place of Mr. W. A. Lowery, on Seneca river, where the negroes were hiding, and just two years to a day from the time they broke jail in Cartersville, Sullivan and Hale found themselves in the strong grasp of the law. After considerable resistance and attempts to flee they were arrested and brought to Wallalla and lodged in jail. The sheriff at Cartersville was wired, and answered that he will be here to-day (Thursday) to convey the prisoners back to the scene of their crime, where they will be given a term in the penitentiary.

Death of a Revered Baptist.

Dr. Robert Ryland died on April 30th, 1890, in Lexington, Ky. He was born in March, 1805, and lived to see twenty-eight Presidential administrations. He was a remarkable man and probably the most revered Baptist in the United